

We ARE PT!

We A.R.E. PT!

- School-wide commitment
- Consistent behavioral expectations
- Direct instruction of behavioral expectations and rules
- Acknowledgment of student behavioral success
- Consistent, appropriate consequences for behavior challenges
- Data-based decision-making to monitor effectiveness and plan interventions

What it is . . .

Students and educators follow Pioneer Trail's expectations:

- We are Accountable
- We are Respectful
- We are Engaged

Pioneer Trail Expectations

WE ARE...	 ACCOUNTABLE	 RESPECTFUL	 ENGAGED
ALL PLACES 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clean up after yourself• Report concerns to an adult	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use school appropriate language• Be polite, and inviting to others• Keeps hands, feet, and body to self• Follow building expectations regarding technology• Take pride in our building	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Follow directions• Be an active listener
CLASSROOM 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be prepared with materials and charged devices• Be on time• Complete work on time• Use your planner• Clean up after yourself• Report concerns to an adult	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use school appropriate language• Be polite and inviting to others• Consider the feelings and ideas of others• Keeps hands, feet, and body to self• Follow building expectations regarding technology• Take pride in our building	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Follow directions• Be an active listener• Be on task• Participate appropriately
HALLWAY 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be on time• Have your signed planner• Leave your hoods down• Clean up after yourself• Report concerns to an adult	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use school appropriate language• Be polite and inviting to others• Keep hands, feet, and body to self• Use quiet conversation• Follow building expectations regarding technology• Take pride in our building	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Follow directions• Be an active listener• Keep traffic flowing• Stay to the right in the hall
COMMONS 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clean up after yourself• Stay in your seat during lunch• Wait to be dismissed• Finish lunch in the commons• Report concerns to an adult• Leave your hoods down	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use school appropriate language• Be polite and inviting to others• Use quiet conversation• Keep hands, feet, and body to self• Follow building expectations regarding technology• Take pride in our building	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Follow directions• Use cafeteria items for intended use• Be an active listener
RESTROOM 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use restroom time wisely• Report concerns to an adult	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use school appropriate language• Be mindful of the privacy of others• Take pride in our building	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Wash your hands
EVENTS 	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Clean up after yourself• Report concerns to an adult• Know your plan to go home afterwards	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use school appropriate language• Keep hands, feet, and body to self• Follow building expectations regarding technology• Represent PT with pride	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Follow directions• Be an attentive spectator• Keep phones put away

Student earn tickets for being accountable, respectful and engaged

- Tickets can be turned into a core class and entered into the weekly drawing for candy/gum
- ALL tickets turned into core classes are brought to quarterly pep assemblies where there is a drawing to win t-shirts or a team party
- Students can also choose to save tickets and choose prizes
 - 50 tickets: wear a hat/hood for a day, homework pass, eat lunch in conference room, etc.
 - 300 tickets: Panther Business Free Day: use phones, popcorn party, etc.