About this Learning Plan

The Understanding Bullying course is divided into eight, 10-minute segments geared toward school faculty and staff. This course will introduce learners to the four types of bullying: physical, relational, verbal, and cyberbullying. Learners will be introduced to warning signs of the different types of bullying. Learners will be given access to in-depth resources on bullying and creating an anti-bullying policy for your school.

By the end of this course:

- Learners will be introduced to warning signs of the different types of bullying.
- Learners will also discover the internalizing and externalizing effects on victims that can lead to active shootings or suicide in extreme cases.
- Learners will be given access to in-depth resources on bullying and creating an anti-bullying policy for your school.
